

ADF Health

JOURNAL OF THE AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE FORCE HEALTH SERVICE

APRIL 2000 — VOLUME 1 : NUMBER 2

2000

The way ahead

Brigadier Wayne Ramsey

Recovery of Australian service personnel missing in action from World War II: the work of the ADF Forensic Recovery Team

Group Captain Christopher J Griffiths and Wing Commander Johan A L C Duflou

The number, rate and site of reported injuries in the Australian Army, 1987–1991

Lieutenant Colonel Stephan J Rudzki

The potential use of military tiltrotor aircraft for aeromedical evacuation

Group Captain Peter S Wilkins

Current indications for hyperbaric oxygen therapy

Surgeon Lieutenant Sarah E Sharkey

The major health implications of ascent to high altitude. 2: Clinical aspects of the exposure to chronic hypoxia

Air Commodore Bruce H Short

A history of courage [book review]

Major General John H Pearn

History, health and the Australian Defence Force

Captain Michael Tyquin

Principles of military psychiatry

Dr John Ellard

The victor as victim: stress syndromes of operational service. 2: Post-traumatic stress syndromes

Major General John H Pearn

The Asia–Pacific Military Medical Conferences

Major General John H Pearn and Brigadier Paul Buckley

Instructions for authors

Health Service Profile: The RAN Submarine and Underwater Medical Unit

46

47

54

58

64

73

78

79

81

85

87

88

Back cover

