

ADF Health

Journal of the Australian Defence Health Service

APRIL 2002 — VOLUME 3: NUMBER 1

2002

Change alone is unchanging
Group Captain Peter S Wilkins

Surgical procedures performed by the Combined Health Element of the Bougainville Peace Monitoring Group
Captain Anthony J Chambers

The implications of splenectomy in the tropical setting
Major Franklin H G Bridgewater, Major Scott Kitchener,
Major Mark Harris, Flight Lieutenant Richard Rahdon

Training the physician for deployment
Captain Timothy J Humphery

Melioidosis: an important emerging infectious disease
— a military problem?
Air Vice-Marshal Bruce H Short

Book review: Obstetrics and gynaecological surgery in the Third World.
Reviewed by Commander Michael O'Connor

An injured mountaineer at high altitude
Lieutenant Commander Paul G Luckin

Volcano! Evacuation and military medical implications
Colonel Jay A Clemens

1800-467425 (1800-IMSICK): a new health service for
ADF personnel within Australia

The Western Front pilgrimage for World War I veterans, 1993
Air Commodore Roger A Capps, Group Captain Graeme T Killer

Instructions to Authors

The emerging office of the Surgeon General
Lieutenant Colonel Robert L Pearce

The 2/12 Australian Field Ambulance
Major General (Rtd) John H Pearn

Aeromedical evacuation — the first 100 years
Air Commodore Tony K Austin

Malaria in the ADF, July – December 2001
Major Scott Kitchener

Notices: Rose Garden Memorial Service;
Oral and maxillofacial surgery meeting;
Congratulations to Lieutenant Colonel Jeffrey Rosenfeld

Health Service Profile: Defence Health Service Branch Back cover

1

2

5

9

13

21

22

25

30

31

35

36

40

43

47

48