

Letters

Aspects of forensic responses to the Bali bombing

Air Commodore Christopher Griffiths, AM, RFD, DPH(D), FICD

ADF Health 2004; 5 (1): 35

→ Next article in this issue
→ Previous article in this issue
→ Contents list for this issue
→ More articles on Terrorism
→ More articles on Forensic medicine
→ Pdf version of this article

TO THE EDITOR: The recent article in ADF Health on forensic aspects of the Bali bombing investigation¹ omitted an acknowledgement of the ADF forensic dental team which worked in Bali. I apologise for this oversight. The members were:

Colonel Geoffrey Stacey RAADC
Lieutenant Commander Matthew Blenkin RAN
Squadron Leader Alex Forrest
Squadron Leader Alain Middleton

Without their efforts, the identification of many victims of the bombing would have been impossible.

1. Griffiths C, Hilton J, Lain R. Aspects of forensic responses to the Bali bombings. ADF Health 2003; 4: 50-55. <Full text>

Oral Medicine/Oral Pathology Unit, Westmead Hospital, PO Box 533, Wentworthville, NSW 2145

Air Commodore Christopher Griffiths, AM, RFD, DPH(D), FICD.