

ADF Health

Journal of the Australian Defence Health Service

SEPTEMBER 2004 — VOLUME 5: NUMBER 2

2004

Strength in unity and diversity

Colonel Jeffrey V Rosenfeld

Malaria in the ADF

Major Nathan Elmes

Morbidity and mortality on RAN ships

Commander Mike O'Connor and Commander Mark Parrish

Book review – The Royal Australian Army Medical Corps
1945–1975

Reviewed by Colonel Jeffrey V Rosenfeld

New haemostatic agents, blood substitutes and the implications for military medicine

Colonel Jeffrey V Rosenfeld and Professor Thomas Kossmann

Skin diseases in war and peacekeeping

Dr Edward Upjohn and Dr John Kelly

Malaria in the Australian Defence Force:
the Bougainville experience

Major Nathan J Elmes, Commander Sonya M Bennett and Lieutenant Colonel Peter E Nasveld

Tuberculosis

Dr Denis Spelman and Dr Graeme MacLaren

Latex allergy and its implications for the Australian Defence Force

Major Franklin Bridgewater and Flight Lieutenant Kelly Trudgen

Epilepsy and the defence forces

Dr Roy G Beran

Statements of Principles: evidence-based compensation for Australian Veterans and serving defence personnel

Dr Justine D Ward and Professor Ken J Donald for the Repatriation Medical Authority

An Australian soldier–naturalist

Major General John H Pearn

Instructions to authors

1st Health Support Company Op Anode
Lieutenant Colonel Leonard Brennan

49

50

51

58

59

64

69

73

78

85

89

94

96

Back cover

